Participation in official events is free. Outside these days, water, electricity, firewood and the use of the sanitary areas are charged. The club informs about the amount in time.

I have noted the rules of procedure for the Turmhügelburg (deposited as a file at the registration form) and will respect them. I am aware that these are not fantasy events.

I have read and will comply with the "Clothing and Storage Equipment Requirements" or approach them seriously.

I will follow the instructions and requests of the Organizing Team.

In case of hindrance, we will inform the organizer in good time (that is, no later than 4 days in advance) by e-mail or by post.

Note:

Groups or single-personers, who register for the first time for the events, please send with the registration form meaningful pictures of the robes, equipment and storage equipment of all participants.
